Information NOW
Information for people in Newcastle upon Tyne

Kielder Observatory

The Kielder Observatory is a centre for public outreach in the science of astronomy and physics. It serves to promote the universe to guests, enabling people from all walks of life and levels of interest to access the visual splendour of the cosmos.
Situated in probably the darkest night sky location in England, in the depths of Kielder Forest, the observatory provides spectacular opportunities to see celestial objects such as planets, stars and galaxies in breath-taking detail.

Last updated: July 23, 2021

Telephone: 0191 265 5510

Website: https://kielderobservatory.org/

Email: admin@kielderobservatory.org

Twitter: https://twitter.com/kielder_obs

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/KielderObservatory

Address:
Black Fell
Kielder Forest
NE48 1ER