

North Tyneside Council Employment and Skills

North Tyneside Employment and Skills consists of a number of key services including:

- Adult Learning Service, which holds contracts with the Education and Skills Funding Agency to deliver study programmes, traineeships, apprenticeships and adult learning courses for residents, including English conversation classes for English as a second language (ESOL) speakers.
- Connexions North Tyneside providing Careers Education and Information Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) to young people and services linking schools with business through effective employer engagement.
- Employability projects supporting unemployed residents to overcome barriers to employment and move into the labour market.
