

Sands

Sands is a stillbirth and neonatal death charity. Their aim is to reduce the number of babies dying and to ensure that anyone affected by the death of a baby receives the best possible care and support for as long as they need it. They provide bereavement support nationally, a freephone helpline, mobile app and online community and resources. They also support research into the causes of baby deaths.

They support

- bereaved parents and siblings and grandparents
- friends and colleagues
- healthcare professionals
