Iceland

Iceland is one of the big supermarkets where you can buy frozen and fresh food in store or online.

Order online: food can be delivered in 2 hours. There is a cost for delivery. Free next day delivery is available when you spend £40.

Shop in store: when you spend £25 or more they will deliver your shopping home to you in a refrigerated vans, at a time that suits you.

In store 10% discount on Tuesdays for people over 60 years old . To get the discount you need to show your: bus pass, Drivers License or Senior railcard at the till.

Visit their website to find the store closest to you. They have a members reward card for discounts and offers

Last updated: May 10, 2023

Website: https://www.iceland.co.uk/

Twitter: https://twitter.com/IcelandFoods

Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/icelandfoods

Youtube: https://www.youtube.com/user/IcelandFoods

Cost: There may be a cost to this service/support

Related Articles

Help with shopping and prescriptions