Newcastle Unitarians

Newcastle upon Tyne Unitarians welcome all who seek the meaning of life, and who believe that human spirituality is wider than any one tradition, and deeper than any one set of opinions. With a respect for their Christian origins, they seek to explore truths from all sources.

They meet on Sundays at 11am. The service may be led by a Unitarian Minister, a Minister from another denomination, or one of their Worship Leaders. On the 1st, 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of the month, they meet at Cuthbert Room at Jesmond United Reform Church. On the second Sunday, they meet at Spiritual Commons room at Student Central, Northumbria University.

We join together in listening, contemplative reflection, prayer and meditation, and lively discussion in our social time together afterwards. We listen to music, readings and an address. We hope to be stimulated, moved, challenged and inspired, within our supportive community.
